Product overview

Jabra Evolve2 65 Flex Stereo Headset with Bluetooth and Wireless Charging Pad The Jabra Evolve2 65 Flex Stereo Headset combines superior audio performance, comfort, and modern connectivity for professionals who require uninterrupted communication. With digital hybrid Active Noise Cancellation (ANC) and a noise-cancelling boom microphone, it ensures clear voice transmission while reducing ambient distractions, making it ideal for open office environments, remote work, or busy co-working spaces. Equipped with 40 mm high-definition speakers, the headset delivers rich and balanced sound for both calls and media playback. Its on-ear, binaural design with memory foam cushions provides all-day comfort, while the foldable ear cups make it highly portable for professionals on the move. This headset features Bluetooth 5.2 for wireless connectivity and comes with a wireless charging pad, allowing for convenient charging without cables. The busylight indicator signals to colleagues when you're in a call, helping to minimize interruptions. Certified for Microsoft Teams and compatible with other major UC platforms such as Zoom and Google Meet, it integrates smoothly with your work tools. Battery life supports up to 32 hours of talk time (21 hours with ANC enabled), and a 15-minute fast charge provides up to 6 hours of usage, ensuring minimal downtime. The headset also offers intuitive on-ear controls for volume adjustment, call management, and ANC activation. Lightweight at approximately 136 grams, it's easy to wear for extended periods, while the foldable design adds portability for travel or flexible workstations. Overall, the Jabra Evolve2 65 Flex Stereo Headset with Bluetooth and Wireless Charging Pad delivers professional-grade communication, comfort, and convenience in a single, stylish package.
